

WHERE IN THE WORLD IS 'THE GREAT AMERICAN MINIATURE DONKEY SALE'?

The Great American Miniature Donkey Sale will be held in Building C, at the Warren County Fairgrounds, next to the Lebanon Raceway, in Lebanon, Ohio. The Fairgrounds are located 0.7 miles north of the center of town on Broadway Street (Route 48), the main street in town. A key landmark is The Golden Lamb, located at the center of town. If you get lost, ask someone how to get to either the Golden Lamb or the Fairgrounds which is next to the Lebanon Raceway.

This page has three parts, a map section, the driving directions from I-71 and I-75, and a pictures section showing you the Golden Lamb, a major landmark. This page is available in Adobe Systems PDF format if you would like to save this to your computer or easily print it out.

Important Parking Note:

Please do not park on the paved area near the Lebanon Raceway. Although this area is adjacent to our Sale building, Building C, and may be empty when you arrive, this parking area is reserved for patrons of the Lebanon Raceway ONLY. It must be kept available at all times per our rental agreement with the Fairground Board.

MAPQUEST DIRECTIONS

If you are going to use MapQuest to give you driving directions, use either "Lebanon, OH" which will put you within 1 mile of the Sale in the center of town, or use the Lebanon Raceway street address which is "655 North Broadway, Lebanon, OH 45036". If you use "Lebanon Raceway", you may be asked to choose a county, chose, "Warren County".
